

Washington Baltimore Center
for Psychoanalysis, Inc.

The Washington Baltimore Center for Psychoanalysis (WBCP) is now accepting applications for the 2019-2020 Fellowship Program.

The Fellowship Program is a one-year, tuition-free program for advanced trainees and graduates in Psychiatry, Psychology and Clinical Social Work. These individuals typically have significant interest in psychoanalysis as a body of knowledge and as a framework with which to understand and carry out therapeutic work.

THE PROGRAM INCLUDES:

- Special lectures, seminars and case conferences arranged for Fellows, held monthly on ten Saturday mornings for two hours during the academic year; Meetings are held at 14900 Sweitzer Lane, Ste 202, Laurel, Md 20707.
- The option to have a mentor to meet with individually to discuss therapeutic issues, papers, research and/or other relevant topics;
- Invitations to the Center's Psychoanalytic Scientific Meetings;
- Waiver of registration fees for local conferences sponsored by the WBCP

APPLICATION PROCESS:

To apply, please submit the following information:

- A short personal essay (two pages maximum) describing the development of your interest in the application of psychoanalytic and/or psychodynamic concepts;
- Two letters of recommendation from professionals who have direct knowledge of your therapeutic work with individuals;
- Your current curriculum vitae.

Applications must be received by July 15. Fellowships will be announced in early September.
